

Dear Richard,

I got this program just before I went on the range and didn't have a chance to send it back. I put it in my footlocker where I would see it when I came back. I am sending it in a special letter so I won't fool around and lose it. I'll bet you thought I had forgotten about it.
Donald.

I opened this letter to tell you something that concerns you. I just bought you a brand new pair of army shoes.

I don't need them and if you can't use them I can some day. Our corporal ordered them a long time ago and now he doesn't need them.

They are size 8 and they only cost me $3.50 a real bargain. They cost $4.00 at army prices and would be a lot higher outside. They also didn't cost a stamp.

Send me a handful of stamps to send them home.

I didn't get to sign the payroll this month because I was in the hospital so I won't get paid on Jan 1.

With my telephone call and this I am about out of money. Would you send me 5 or 6 dollars to last me till Feb. 1.

Donald.

Don't talk too much about the shoes.

Wait till I get ^{to send money} moved,
so that the money will come direct.
