

UNITED STATES ARMY

Sunday 8:00 PM

Hi.

I've got more to do than I dare think about but I must take time to write. Maybe some of the work will just have to go and be done some other time. Everything has to be hunted up from all over the place and then be straightened up and cleaned up.

We got here at almost an hour this eve (5:15 PM) so that worry is over. My car just ran and ran and I all but ran out of cotton wadding. I bought some more as soon as I got here.

My car doesn't and hasn't felt too bad so I may wait till things get to running normal again before I see about it. Of course if it gives much trouble tonight I'll get it attention. So don't worry.

I slept an awfully lot on the train so I have been tireder than I am now. But want to get around & get to bed pretty soon.

Love,

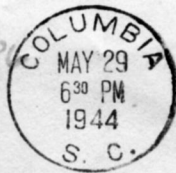

Donald.
