Hello Folks, Hello Folks,

Belgium

Well I am sure glad to be able to write you again. I hope you'll forgive the time that I got the last letter sent out but you'll just have to live with it on conditions. I didn't get it started till last night. I'd better tell you first that I am very thankful that I've been getting mail pretty regularly. I've got two or three letters you wrote about Christmas time and quite a few back ones that had been held up for some reason or other. I got also your stationery, box of woollen clothes, Sunday School papers and a Christmas box from Uncle Floyd and Pauls. I'll bet that there is nothing in this world I'd have appreciated more than something to keep me warm. They certainly can be put to immediate use. as usual I also got quite a kick out of the things to eat in the other box. I am still getting along OK and depending for strength on the Lord. Today we are resting and between now and tomorrow if we are still here I am going to make an honest effort to write you an air mail. I hope you are glad to get these V-mails though. Love Donald
