Dear Folks,

Feb 16 Germany
It won't do any good to apologize but it's likely seems like ages since I last wrote. Yesterday I received your letter of Jan. 31 and since Daddy made a special request for me to put the country I'm in, I'll try to always do so. You said my last few V-mails had not been photographed so I'm doing my best to make this one legible. I've wished several times that I had not left my fountain pen in my duffle bag before we moved into action. I guess that's about the only thing I really cared about that I didn't bring but I doubt now if we'll ever see our bags again. I'd be happy if you would send me a cheap pen so there would be no difficulty in the V-mails going through. I was sure glad to hear that mother had started a box on the way. If you included mostly things to eat, it can't come amiss. I sort of hate to start asking for specific things along this line but if you'd like for me to, I could start with a bunch of mother's divinity fudge. I think I have gotten all the packages you mentioned. I've gotten Sunday school papers several times and the other day I received a bunch that contained a Reader's Digest. Thanks. I know you are praying for me and I really know prayer helps. God has sure been good to me. Happy Birthday, Richard and Jim.

Love, Donald
